BARN SALE

A huge thanks to all who helped make the rummage sale such a big success. Donations from the community were numerous and varied. Giz and Ken Roddie coordinated the event and reported many happy people making purchases. At last count, we netted $629.00. There will probably be a rummage sale again next year!

The Tuesday morning weavers and quilters continue to give wonderful support to the Historical Society. If you went into the Museum early enough during the Rummage Sale, you might have seen the beautiful array of appliqué pieces. Lana Verbic, who amazingly had purchased them at a garage sale, donated these pieces! Most of them sold very quickly, but a few were left and Dolly Raines has put backings on them. They would make great pillows! These pieces will be for sale at the Olde Thyme Fayre, Sept. 11th and 12th.

Trustee

We welcome a new Trustee to the Historical Society, Betty Tomko, and a longtime Twinsburg resident who has a big interest in our organization. We're glad to have you with us, Betty!

Olde Thyme Fayre

It will be time for the Olde Thyme Fayre before you know it, so nurture those prize vegetables and flowers and start on your favorite needlework or handwork project. Details on times for dropping off items for judging will be in next month's Newsletter and in the Twinsburg Bulletin. New this year: Apple Pie making contest. Yum!
