Holiday Party

The Twinsburg Historical Society invites the public to attend their annual Holiday party, which will be held on Wednesday, December 1 from 7:00 – 9:00 pm in the museum. Do you have a white elephant gift you would like to pass on to someone else? Wrap it and bring it along and participate in our mystery gift exchange or spend less than $5 on something and wrap that! Adding to the holiday atmosphere will be the old fashioned sound of recorded, music box, holiday music. Refreshments will be served.

A beautiful quilt, made and donated by Dolly Raines, a longtime member of the Historical Society, will be raffled during the evening as well. The quilt measures 106” by 106” and is a lovely combination of blues and pinks. Raffle tickets may still be purchased at the November's Open House and at the party.

Open House Schedule

November 28 Open House - Charlotte Wike and Sue Graham are hostesses and will be in charge of putting up Christmas decorations. All visitors are welcome to help decorate!

December 26 Open House - Gayle Davet and Audrey Kancler are hostesses.

As a reminder ... the Museum can be available to visitors by appointment as well as at Open Houses. If you have family or friends visiting over the holidays and would like them to see the Museum, leave a message on the answering machine 330-487-5565.

Tales of Locust Grove

You may recall that in 2008, when the first "Tales of Locust Grove" was presented, the Historical Society pledged to use profits to benefit Locust Grove Cemetery, possibly repairing some tombstones, etc. Representatives from Kotecki Monument Co. were asked to visit the cemetery last year and surprisingly, they recommended that our money be spent cutting down a couple of large dead trees and trimming large dead branches, saying that a falling tree could easily damage dozens of stones. Therefore, within the next couple of weeks, work will be done at Locust Grove, courtesy of the Historical Society and all of you who attended "Tales of Locust Grove". Perhaps next year we will repair some markers.

Halloween Storytelling Program

On Thursday, October 21, the Historical Society and the Twinsburg Library teamed up for their 16th Halloween Storytelling program. Children, accompanied by their parents, came to our barn dressed in costumes... from puppy dogs to witches and vampires! Everyone in attendance had a good time, although one child appeared more interested in the refreshments than the stories! Between every presentation, he'd ask...Now can we have a doughnut?!

Geauga County Historical Society

The Geauga County Historical Society is advertising what appears to be a very busy and interesting opportunity to learn more about Christmas celebrations in pioneer days. Titled "Christmas - A Century Apart", the day offers various events or exhibits in the buildings at their "Century Village" (southeast of the Burton town square). This will be Saturday, Dec. 11, from 10AM to 4PM and admission is FREE. Workshops are available to learn how to make decorations and centerpieces but registration is required (call 440-729-7173). To learn more about the day's activities call 440-834-1492.

E-mail List

Are you interested in being on the Historical Society email list?? You would actually receive very few emails from us, but we are compiling a list so that we can reach people with reminders about programs and special events. Send your email address to akancler@windstream.net if you want to be included.

Snow Birds!

It appears that several of our members spend some of the winter months in warmer climates. The post office does not forward our Newsletter; so if you would like to receive it while you are away, please let us know your southern address and how long you will be gone. You can call Lea Bissell at 330-425-2571.

December Newsletter

There will be no newsletter in December. Happy holidays to all! See you in 2011!
