January 2011

Happy New Year to all of you faithful Historical Society supporters! We hope you agree that we had a fun and busy 2010. We look forward to a great 2011, welcome your suggestions for activities and programs, and, as always are grateful for your help.

Open House Schedule

Open House is January 30, from 2-5 pm.. Lea Bissell and Charlotte Wike are hostesses.

Bob Evans Night!

The next fundraiser at Bob Evans will be on Tuesday, March 8th. It is hoped that breakfast, lunch, and dinner will all be available to benefit the Historical Society. Plans are still being made, but check next month's Newsletter for details and also for the all-important coupon, which is needed in order for a percentage of your check to reach us.

Annual Meeting & Potluck

The date for the Annual Meeting and Pot Luck has been set for Saturday evening, April 2nd. This will be at the First Congregational Church, time to be announced in next month's Newsletter.

Twinsburg H.S. Scholarship

The Twinsburg Historical Society announces the creation of a $500 scholarship. The Society does this in the spirit of returning something to the community and also in recognition of the contribution made by students in the Drama Club for the presentation of "Tales of Locust Grove" over the past three years. The scholarship is open to all THS students. Applications should be made through the guidance office at the High School.
